

WORKSHOPS

In today's fast paced world, education is changing dimensions like never before. Theory and practice go hand in hand and hence to sustain in this ever-changing dynamic environment, it becomes extremely critical to undergo a three-dimensional learning process. Hence the Department of Business Administration, Tezpur University in order to ensure that its students can cope up with the rapid pace of this dynamic work environment has taken up various workshops and seminars. "Knowledge can lead you to places"- This quote goes a long way in proving how it is as important to shape one's personality as it is to shape one's mind. Hence, all the students of Business Administration, Tezpur University underwent a three-day long Personality Enhancement Program of Dale Carnegie under the watchful guidance of Itri Sinha and Yasmin Iranl. It turned out very well since all of them felt extremely confident and there was an immediate upliftment in the personalities of the students.
