

CENTRE FOR ENDANGERED LANGUAGES TEZPUR UNIVERSITY

Two-day National Workshop on Lexicography From 25 – 26 October 2018

A two-day National Workshop on Lexicography was held from 25 – 26 October 2018. It was organized and funded by Centre for Endangered languages Tezpur University.

Resource persons: i. Dr. Devabrata Sharma, Principal, Jorhat College, Jorhat and a renowned Lexicographer in Assamese.

ii. Mr.Mayank Jain, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi.

About the Workshop: The workshop focus on dictionary making by using software tools such as FLEX and LEXIQUE PRO.

Total no of participants who attended the workshop are 100.

PHOTOGRAPHS WITH CAPTIONS

Mr.Mayank Jain being felicitated at the Workshop on Lexicography
Date: 25.10.2018

m Barbera

সমন্বয়ক / Coordinator
লুপ্তপ্রায় ভাষা কেন্দ্র
Centre For Endangered Languages
তেজপুর বিশ্ববিদ্যালয়
Tezpur University

Dr. Devabrata Sharma addressing the participants at the Workshop on Lexicography
Date: 25.10.2018

Attendees of the Workshop on Lexicography
Date: 25.10.2018

2-day National Workshop on Lexicography
Centre for Endangered Languages
Program Schedule

Date: 25—26 October, 2018

Venue: Room No 11, G-block, New HSS Building

	Morning (10.30am—1pm)	Afternoon (2.30pm—5pm)
Day 1	Mayank Jain: Software tools and Lexicography (Flex, Lexique Pro etc.)	Dr Devabrata Sharma: The History and Evolution of Dictionaries in Assamese
Day 2	Dr Devabrata Sharma: Issues and Challenges of Dictionary Making in Vernacular Languages	Mayank Jain: Hands on Training of various tools

