Report on Seminar/Conference/Workshop conducted

Title: Seminar on Career opportunities for Linguistics and Language graduates
Date(s): 5th September 2019
Resource Person: Dr.Ajit Kumar Naik, Senior Learning & Development Consultant, Brainayan Inc who has done his Ph.D. in Linguistics from JNU. He has 20+ years of rich research, training and teaching experience across Fortune 500 tech companies (Facebook, Google) and higher educational institutions. He is also a Strong certified career counsellor.
Participant's Profile: All the interested students from the Department of English & Foreign languages.
Description about the Program: The resource person explained about the career fields which build on studies in Linguistics and Applied Linguistics. In exploring options, resource person suggested to reflect on the skills that students have developed through their course curriculum, using those skills and find out the careers which are most strongly related. The seminar was helpful to all participants. The speaker was discussed about the different career opportunities available for the for Linguistics and Language graduates. He explained about the great value in the pursuit of careers in education, publishing, media, social services, communication, computer languages, voice analysis research, communicative disorders, and other language related fields. In recent years, there has been a surge of demand from various industries for competent linguists. He also mentioned that in addition to above mentioned job-oriented fields, if one wants to excel in research, linguistics offers comprehensive options not only in India but in other parts of the world as well. If you are willing to travel extensively, knowing various culture and civilizations around the globe, linguistics is one of the best options. Almost all major and minor funding agencies (both national and international), provide fellowship/scholarship assistance for conducting linguistic researches depending upon their area of interest.
Feedback: In the question answer session, students have actively participated in the discussion and the resource person shared his experience as a linguistics professional. Participants informed us that the seminar provide them a expressed the view on interdisciplinary research and also shared that this workshop brought some new lights on their thought process.
