Semester I:

2020 Autumn Semester Covid19 pandemic has created new challenges in admission and academic process. With delayed admission of students, online classes were conducted and online evaluation was done. The faculty members have told mentees about expectation from the department, objectives of MA Education programme and tried to bridge out the gap between teacher and students and provided every possible help and advice to mentees. At the beginning the students had lot of complication with the online classes and evaluation, however, the faculty members extended every possible help to eradicate the issues and doubt raised amongst the students. Besides online classes the faculty members distributed best E-study material, recorded classes for further doubt clarification on the online classes and other academic queries, on regular interval, the mentor have been taken an account of student's health and provided online counseling in pandemic situation.

Semester II:

2021 Spring Semester Mentees have been told about their strength and weakness and advised to improve in certain areas. Care was taken through telephonic conversation so that the students should not have mental stress due to online classes, online evaluation, and assignments. suggestions on the selection of Research topics, research related and other academic queries was given and as done in 1st semester, students and their family and friends health condition was taken and online counselling in this pandemic situation was given.
