Report on
One day Workshop on RAMAN Spectrometer
at SAIC, Tezpur University
On 11th March 2019

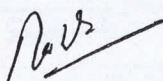

Sophisticated Analytical Instrumentation Centre, (SAIC) Tezpur University organized One day Workshop on RAMAN Spectrometer in collaboration with unique RIUS (Universal Spectrometer) and RIMS (Modular spectroscopic work station) for the Research scholars and M.Tech students of Tezpur University on 11th March 2019. Forty One participants from different departments have participated in the training program. During the program, the participants were trained on Basic of RAMAN Spectrometer followed by the philosophy behind the instrumentation of Raman Spectrometer, its different components and as to how the data are collected and what information it contain.
